

11th May, You're invited!

...to SearchStar's 'Tour de Wye Valley' 2018.

Route 1: 55 miles, 5100ft climbing

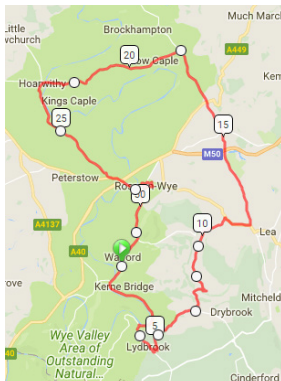

A year ago we struggled together through the Black Mountains, returning to Abergavenny for a well-earned lunch. We feel the pain inflicted upon us that day has sufficiently abated for another Welsh challenge.

The plan is to meet at the Mill Race gastropub near the remarkable Symonds Yat at 8am for an invigorating combination of bacon rolls and coffee/tea.

This time we're splitting into two groups, with the first heading for the 107th greatest climb in the UK and a challenging, yet beautiful, spin around the Wye Valley.

Route 2: 30 miles, 2300ft climbing

The second will stay closer to home for a more forgiving, yet equally attractive, ride around the upper Wye Valley. Both will, naturally, involve coffee and cake.

Having gone our separate ways, we will reconvene for a well-earned late lunch at around 2pm at the renowned Mill Race where our day began.

If you'd like to join us after all that, reply "yes please" - feel free to share the invite with a client or colleague.
